Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Mrs. David Kennedy was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Miss Ollie Bailey was in Youngstown last Saturday.

Wilbur King of Mahoningtown, Pa., Mrs. George King, over Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Platt was a Salem shopper last Saturday evening.

Harry Weikert moved his family from Leetonia to Salem Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stouffer, a baby boy Monday morning.

Joe Warner of Sebring called on George Hall and family last Sunday.

Gladys Boston of Akron is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culler.

Miss Ella Girard and Mrs. Winifred Baker were Lisbon visitors last Saturday.

Miss Ephra Wilson of Youngstown was in the village last Saturday afternoon.

William Platt of Canton visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Platt, Sunday.

Misses Thelma and Charlotte Boser called on friends in Alliance last Saturday.

Wm. Carns and family of Salem spent last Sunday with O. P. Moore and wife.

Mrs. Wm. Weikert spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weikert in Leetonia.

John Thorp of Urbana visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thorp, last week.

Ralph Warner and John Wilkinson of Youngstown visited their parents here over Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baker and daughter Myrtle were Salem visitors last Saturday night.

Lewis Baker of Salem and Earl Baker of Lisbon called at Harvey Baker's last Friday.

Charles Boser was off duty at the Crescent Machine Shop this week on account of illness.

Mrs. Herbert Smedley visited her daughter, Miss Ruth, in Youngstown last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Simpson and two daughters, Misses Audrey and Helen, were Salem callers last Saturday.

A. L. Taylor Monday left for Chester, Pa., on a business trip for the Buckeye Engine Co. of Salem.

Miss Marie King of New Castle is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George King, for a few weeks.

John Fieldhouse had three toes broken while at work at the McGraw rubber plant in East Palestine.

There was a good turn out at the Union church prayer meeting at the M. E. Church last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fulkerson of New Castle visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJane, Sunday and Monday.

Horace Tetlow returned home to New Castle Tuesday after being here several days on account of the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hawn and little daughter Mildred May of Alliance were guests of her aunt, Miss Amanda Bilger, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hincheliff and little son Harry, Jr., of Sebring visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Senior over Easter.

Tom Grindle and wife of North Lima and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grable of Salem spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Lutheran church, and Rev. John Kerr, pastor of the M. E. church, gave excellent Easter sermons last Sunday evening.

Citizens of Washingtonville have donated the price of a flag for the public school. The school has been without a flag since the old school house burned.

We wish to thank the friends and community for the kindness and favors shown at the burial of our beloved husband and father, Mrs. Samuel Bilger and family.

A number of miners from here attended the funeral of Frank Allen in Salem last Friday. He was fatally hurt in an accident at the Salem Mines last week Tuesday.

At the regular school board meeting Tuesday evening, O. C. Weikert was appointed a member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Joseph Fitzpatrick.

Howard Stouffer went to Salem Tuesday in his automobile, and brought Emmet Carlyle home from the hospital where he had been confined the last seven weeks. Mr. Carlyle is pleased to get home and will be glad to have friends call on him.

Joseph D. Bell, aged 52, died at the Salem hospital Monday evening of a complication of diseases. He always resided in Washingtonville and was taken to Salem several weeks ago. He is survived by five brothers and five sisters. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. R. Shave, in Salem in charge of Rev. R. F. Mayer, pastor of the Methodist church of Salem, with burial in Oakland cemetery near Washingtonville.

PETER'S POLISHED PARAGRAPHS

Thanks to Washingtonville friends for many beautiful Easter cards. Onion sets are plentiful here, but seed potatoes are scarce and high priced.

The maple syrup crop was light in Carroll county, and much of it was brought here from the Western Reserve.

Roller skating on the sidewalks is a popular amusement among the kids when going to and returning from school.

Corn is selling here at 16¢ a bushel, it being brought here from Pittsburgh and sometimes is hard to get at any price. This vicinity is underlaid with a 4 1/4% seam of good coal, but no banks are open.

"America" and "God Save the King" have the same tune, and in these times of world war against Germany when Uncle Sam and John Bull shake hands across the troubled waters in order to save the King, why not sing it?

There are many cases of typhoid fever throughout this county.

Local fishermen have been lining the banks of nearby streams the past week.

I noticed a barrel fresh fish at a grocery store one day last week, and it reminded me of David Calvin who gave me a fish sandwich nearly every time he drove to Washingtonville.

Many college students and those attending the state normal at Kent were home during Easter vacation.

Miss Wilma Danlap, teacher in Youngstown, and teachers in other counties, were also home with their parents.

The probate judge of Carroll county has been allowed $100 for extra clerk hire. His office has more work than that of the common pleas court, as the former is in session all the time.

Whoever has the best garden in Washingtonville this year should let that fact be known in The Mahoning Dispatch.

There is still a little oil excitement about Carrollton, especially over the plowing wells; but when the "Popcorn" well came in a duster last week the joke was turned.

A wireless message tells me that Loron Ambler Taylor will have a cartoon of a local hit in this week's Mahoning Dispatch. "Buck" No. 2 can draw the picture, if some one will only furnish the subject.

Mayor Morrow suggests in the town papers that every vacant lot, lawn and back yard in Carrollton be planted in potatoes, corn and garden truck.

Who furnished the hot cross buns for Washingtonville last Friday? And whose hens laid the eggs for Easter?

Our village council has appointed Jacob Miller official "dog pelter" of the village. Jake has built a dog house in which to kill K-9's, and has already dispatched several of them. He also takes cats and chickens. This is in part of the preliminary towards making more gardens and reducing the H. C. L.

Our business men's association has arranged for another Chautauqua on the school house lawn July 31 to August 5.

The last number of the high school lecture course was held in the Methodist church Tuesday evening when Dr. Arthur Evans gave his lecture, "What America Means to Me." He is a Welshman and has the peculiar delivery of that country. His description of the native Welshman marching off to war and word pictures of him in the trenches grasped his audience so that old and young were held by his eloquence.

Friday, April 13, has been designated by the Cox as Arbor Day, but as that is the date set for the teachers of this county to meet, the teachers have postponed Arbor Day until a week later, Friday, April 20.

Nothing but war talk now in Carrollton and many business houses displaying flags, but not one of them ready to volunteer. Some of them are too old, some too short and some don't want to get killed. Work is too plentiful at $3.50 a day to volunteer at $13 a month, presume the same conditions prevail at Washingtonville; Andy Mulr is too fat; Wm. Belk, Dave Summerville and D. R. Lehman don't want to get killed, nor do they want to kill anybody. Yet Mike Higgins will not be too "loyal" to sell lager beer and Limburger sandwiches to Elmer Intermitt, Peck Herrman and Nick Stepphili—if they call for them. Let it be remembered that it snowed on Easter Sunday. I do not remember whether there was a green Christmas or not.

It appears that Sheriff Dalrymple has more boarders than he can accommodate, and that the sleeping quarters are not sanitary. Prisoners are not put in jail to punish them, but simply to have them in safe keeping until trial. It appears strange that no law can be found to build a new jail at Lisbon, since it has been condemned so frequently. After the Carroll county jail had been condemned a few times the court refused to send prisoners into it, but sent them to Canton until the county commissioners built a new one here. Some thought that the prisoners should be chained to a stake (not steak) in the backyard. Dal should have at least as good guards as Lisbon has at Washingtonville.

The Van Kirk coal company at Delroy is shipping coal and leasing more land. The output is of good quality and will soon take the place of Pittsburg coal for certain purposes.

This is the first issue of Volume 41 of The Mahoning Dispatch, with which the present editor has labored for 40 years. The work was no doubt monotonous at times and discouraging at others, but with the assistance of an able corps of county correspondents it is to be hoped that The Dispatch during the coming year will be more interesting and enjoyable to the readers than ever, as well as more remunerative to the publisher. The present price of subscription does not promise to land The Dispatch man in the Rockefeller class; yet an increased subscription list, backed by well-paying advertisers, will look encouraging to the publisher and appear prosperous upon the countenance of The Dispatch itself. Try it.
